

What do Mick Jagger, Janet Jackson and Venus Williams all have in common?

They all started in finance & accounting...
Now, this is your moment.

Start recruiting the finance professionals of the future at deverellsmith.

The UK accounting and finance sector is worth £27.6 billion, but, did you know there are 2.2 million professionals in it?

So... why Finance recruitment at deverellsmith?

Imagine working for a business that invests in you and where you're guaranteed personal and professional growth.

Every business says you can walk into a warm desk, but right now we are turning away work. This means you'll have a genuine opportunity to make serious money, quickly.

1

Finance is our number one priority. You'll be part of an already high-performing team as we are investing heavily in its people and resources.

Our L&D programme positions us in the top 1% of recruitment firms across the UK. You'll have access to world-class training, coaching and mentoring.

We don't have all the answers, but we know you want honesty. You'll have a genuine say in the strategy and direction as we become the best and have the chance to be part of an exciting growth story.

You'll be joining other high-performing, experienced recruiters to drive its growth and quadruple its size

Top 2

The last 2 years saw a finance consultant achieve one of the top 2 places on our billings leaderboard, where they took the top spot in 2022.

What does this mean for you?

You'll benefit from 16 years of established relationships in the property sector within the team and wider business.

This team is for you if...

- You want exposure to exceptional earning potential and to work alongside one of deverellsmith's highest-performing consultants.
- You can picture yourself working alongside our Managing Director, a market expert who was pivotal in building one of the most successful finance divisions within a major recruitment corporation.

Other finance alumni

Who will you find...

Interested? Our Head of Talent Acquisition Ella Beese is available to discuss opportunities across all disciplines of the business. Get in touch here or phone me on - 07496919129

